

TRINITY TEACHER TO BE MAY QUEEN

Annual Exercises to Be Held in Georgetown
Next Sunday.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU,
GEORGETOWN, MAY 15

The annual May procession of the children of the Sunday school of Trinity Church will be held next Sunday afternoon, and preparations are being made for the event. Contrary to the usual custom, one of the teachers will act as the queen of May, instead of one of the girl scholars, Miss Ida Lydane being selected for the honor. In addition to the boys and girls of the Sunday school the full vested choir and the acolytes will be in the procession with their altar attire.

The brass band from Gonzaga College will lead the procession. The route will be the same as in previous years. Leaving the Sunday School Hall the children will march down N street to Thirty-fourth street, north to Volta place, west to Thirty-fifth street, by the Academy of Visitation, south to O street, and thence west to the church grounds, where the exercises will be held on the lawn. Should the weather prove unfavorable the procession will only be from the school hall to the church, and the services will be indoors.

The May procession of the Sunday school of St. Ann's Church, Tenleytown, the first under the direction of the new pastor, will be held next Sunday afternoon. The children will march along Wisconsin avenue and the services will be held in the church, closing with benediction of the blessed sacrament.

The children of the Sunday school of Peck Memorial Chapel, which is perhaps the largest Sunday school in Georgetown, celebrated Children's Day this afternoon at the Church of the Covenant in conjunction with the Sunday school of that church. The Peck scholars assembled at 2 o'clock at the chapel and proceeded in a body to the Washington church. The exercises included the distribution of potted plants to every one present.

"The Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist," the subject of the lecture to be given this evening in the special course to non-Catholics, now being delivered at St. Ann's Church, Tenleytown, by the Rev. Thomas G. Smyth. The exercises commence at 7:30 o'clock, and an interesting feature is the answering of queries placed in the question box.

The congregation of the West Washington Baptist Church enjoyed a special treat today, which was known as former pastors' day. This morning the Rev. Clarence P. Stealey, who is now doing evangelistic work in Oklahoma, spoke, while tonight at 8 o'clock the Rev. Cornelius C. Coleman, who is now stationed in Texas, will preach.

The Rev. Zed H. Copp will lead this evening at the prayer meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of the West Street Presbyterian Church, the subject of the topic being, "Christ's Verities." The services will commence at 7 o'clock.

Nearly 400 men attended the special 8 o'clock mass at Trinity Church this morning. Members of the Third Sunday Brigade, and received holy communion. The Rev. Edward M. Corbett, S. J., the pastor, was the celebrant, and he delivered a short sermon.

The second of the series of outdoor services on the grounds of the Cathedral Close are being held this afternoon, commencing at 4 o'clock, and continuing for about an hour and a half. The Rev. Frederick B. Howden, of St. John's Church, Potomac, and O streets, was selected to deliver the sermon. The Cathedral choir, led by a detachment of the United States Marine Band, sings the service.

O street, at the intersection of Potomac street, looked like a field of snow last evening about 9 o'clock. Forty-eight gallons of milk were scattered on the roadway, the result of car No. 112, striking a two-horse wagon, driven by Benjamin Knighting, of Moreland. The rear wheels of the milk wagon, which contained more than 100 gallons of milk, were wrecked, while the fender of the car was damaged.

Winter Ford, aged ninety-four years, of 2613 O street, was found sick at Thirtieth and K streets, about 5:30 yesterday afternoon, apparently suffering from a fit. He was taken to Georgetown University Hospital in the patrol, and expired within a few minutes after his arrival at the institution. The coroner was notified.

SISTERS PLANNING FOR SILVER JUBILEE

BALTIMORE, May 15.—The silver jubilee of St. Mary's Academy of the Visitation Sisters will be celebrated Tuesday with Cardinal Gibbons presiding. Governor Crothers and other prominent State officials are expected to be present at the exercises. The exercises will include a solemn high mass on Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock, a reunion of the alumnae in the afternoon, and a dinner to the clergy and other distinguished guests in the evening.

LEPROSY REPORT A JOKE.

ZANESVILLE, Ohio, May 15.—The widespread rumor that two Zanesville high school girls are suffering from leprosy is absolutely without foundation, and the report is due to a joking remark. One of the girls, aged eighteen, upon a patent preparation on her feet when fatigued, and when she told her schoolmates that it caused a sore on her foot, one of them remarked that she had leprosy.

A meeting of the men of the Sunday School Association will be held at the First Baptist Church this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The meeting is called for the purpose of making arrangements to attend the Bible school parade, which will be held in Washington this week.

Today being Whit Sunday, services marking the day were held in the Catholic, Episcopal, and Lutheran churches.

In the First Baptist Church this morning, the Rev. R. L. Motley, of North Carolina, occupied the pulpit. This evening the Rev. A. J. Moncrief, also of North Carolina, will preach.

At the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, preaching, Rev. Faddou Moghahab, B. A., will deliver his exposition of the Psalm XXIII.

USES INVALIDS' DISGUISE.

LONDON, May 15.—In order to detect Sunday card playing at Clacton a police sergeant disguised himself as an invalid and was wheeled in a bath chair by a policeman in plain clothes to a spot where "banker" was being played.

DISMISSED PASTOR COMMITTS SUICIDE

Following Investigation of Treatment of Bride, Clergyman Shoots Himself.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 15.—It was learned this morning from Orange, Tex., that the Rev. Arthur McFall, formerly of Cynthiana, Ky., committed suicide there when forced to resign the pastorate of the First Baptist Church.

On February 22 last McFall married Miss Mary Hubbard Smith, of Cynthiana, Ky. They left immediately for Texas, where McFall had a fashionable charge. Within two weeks after their wedding McFall began to brutalize his wife, she claimed, and on April 17 she left him and fled suit for divorce.

This caused an investigation to be made into McFall's earlier record. Following these inquiries McFall was asked to resign. He asked to remain tentative pastor until June 1, but to be granted leave of absence until that time. This was granted. He then went home and shot himself. His young wife arrived at the home of her parents at Cynthiana last night.

SKIN TROUBLES IN THE HOUSEHOLD

For Eruptions of Every Kind There Is Only One Thing to Be Used.

At various times during the year nearly all the members of the household are annoyed by skin affections, such as pimples, herpes, rash, inflamed skin, itching spots, scaly scalp, dandruff, etc. A little poslam ready at hand whenever these troubles appear will effectively put an end to them and prevent any mental or physical discomfort which they might bring. Should any of the more serious skin diseases, eczema, acne, tetter, scabies, psoriasis, etc., affect either infant or adult, or any part of the body, poslam may be depended upon for immediate relief and a rapid and permanent cure.

How quickly and thoroughly poslam does its work may be noted by any one who will send to the Emergency Laboratories, No. 25 West Twenty-fifth street, New York city, for a free sample, and use it on a small affected eczema surface, or for clearing the complexion and causing pimples to disappear.

Poslam is now on sale by all good druggists, particularly Ogram's, O'Donnell's, the People's Drug Store, and Affleck's, also other good drug stores. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1. Druggists who appreciate just what poslam does, know that they cannot, with satisfaction to their customers, substitute anything else.
